

Leaving a Legacy for Georgia FFA

Imagine making a contribution that leaves a legacy to Georgia FFA for generations to come! The Georgia FFA Foundation is a Georgia non-profit corporation exempt from income tax pursuant to Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified as a public charity. Contributions to the Foundation are deductible for the donor under Section 170 of the Code. As a full-service public charity, the Foundation may accept all types of contributions. If you can imagine the donation, the Foundation can make it happen. You might consider a gift of:

Property - Real or Personal

If you have a piece of property used or unwanted, the Foundation, through its Gift Acceptance Committee, is able to accept gifts of real property. The Foundation, subject to its gift acceptance policies and committee approval, can also accept donations of personal collections, unique items, taxidermy, collectibles and the like. Please contact the Foundation if you have an item or items of interest.

Retirement Accounts

The Foundation is an eligible recipient (beneficiary) of retirement benefits such as your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) or 401(k) plan. Individuals over age 70 1/2 might consider designating the Foundation to receive a portion or all of the required minimum distribution during your lifetime. The Foundation may be designated to receive any portion or all of a retirement plan upon the death of the account owner. This can be especially valuable to the account owner if the account is small or subject to certain income tax consequences. If you are interested in naming the Foundation as the beneficiary or income payee, please contact the Foundation for assistance in completing the necessary forms.

Life Insurance

The Foundation may receive the death benefit, or any portion of the benefit, from life insurance policies. To include the Foundation as a beneficiary, an individual need only name the Foundation on the beneficiary designation form.

Charitable Trusts

The Foundation may serve as the charitable beneficiary for charitable remainder trusts or for charitable lead trusts. In addition, the Foundation can work with individuals in selecting a trustee and putting together a charitable trust or annuity to benefit the Foundation.

Testamentary Bequests

Whether an individual addresses their estate planning through a trust or a last will and testament, the Foundation can be included. The Foundation can receive all types of testamentary bequests - from cash to property. If you need assistance identifying the Foundation in your estate planning documents or have specific instructions for your bequest, please contact the Foundation.
