

Chapter Officer Leadership Training

As you elect new officer teams and begin a transition into a new school year, please consider coming to one of Georgia FFA's Chapter Officer Leadership Training (COLT) conferences. COLT conference is a premier opportunity to equip your student leaders with the skills and resources needed to serve your chapter. In 2024, the Georgia FFA will again offer two COLT conferences. Both conferences will prepare your students to work more closely as a team, stretch their comfort zone, plan for chapter events, and engage with other chapter officers from across the state.
